SWOG QUALITY ASSURANCE

The purpose of the Quality Assurance Program is to enhance the reliability and validity of clinical trials data through routine monitoring. Audits are designed to provide assurance that the data reported on research records accurately reflect data in the primary patient record and to verify compliance with protocol and regulatory requirements. The program also surveys data management practices at each institution to provide educational support to clinical trial sites regarding data quality, management, and more.

RESOURCES

For help with clinic trials quality assurance and the audit process:

https://www.swog.org/clinical-trials/quality-assurance-audits#Guidelines

FAQs: Protocol Conduct:

https://www.swog.org/clinical-trials/frequently-asked-questions/faqs-protocol-conduct

FAQs: Data Submission:

https://www.swog.org/clinical-trials/frequently-asked-questions/faqs-data-submission

FAQs: Quality Assurance:

https://www.swog.org/clinical-trials/frequently-asked-questions/faqs-quality-assurance

Best Practices for SWOG Studies:

https://www.swog.org/%22BestPractice%22

Questions?
Email: qamail@swog.org

13Apr2023

4201 Medical Drive, Suite 250 | San Antonio, TX 78229 | OFFICE 210-614-8808 | FAX 210-614-0006

In partnership with   KNIGHT CANCER Institute OHSU   NCI National Clinical Trials Network   NCI Community Oncology Research Program