

Plenary I

Thursday, October 12, 3:30 – 5 pm CT • Regency B-D (Ballroom Level, West Tower)

This fall's translational medicine plenary will feature the following speakers and topics:

Welcome and Introduction

Lee M. Ellis, MD, FASCO
SWOG Vice-Chair for Translational Medicine
MD Anderson Cancer Center

S2108CD: Implementing Genomic Tumor Boards in the Community Setting: Can We Increase Evidence-Based Genome-Informed Therapy?

Jens Rueter, MD
The Jackson Laboratory

TM Efforts of the DART Trial: Building the Rare Tumor TCGA

Young Kwang Chae, MD, MPH, MBA
Northwestern University
Feinberg School of Medicine and Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center

Keynote – Cancer Immune Monitoring and Analysis Centers (CIMACs)

SWOG and CIMAC Collaborations: A Challenging, But Successful, Journey

Ignacio I. Wistuba, MD
MD Anderson Cancer Center

NCTN CIMAC: Curing Cancer by Working Together

Helen X. Chen, MD
Cancer Therapy and Evaluation Program, National Cancer Institute

Panel discussion with Q&A will follow.

Attendees can earn Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits for this event.

Plenary II

Many Generations of Hope • Friday, October 13, 12:00 – 2:00 pm CT • Regency B-D (Ballroom Level, West Tower)

This fall's general plenary will feature the following speakers and topics. We will celebrate 30 years of impact of The Hope Foundation for Cancer Research.

Chair's Welcome and Update

Charles D. Blanke, MD, FASCO, FAWM
SWOG Group Chair
OHSU Knight Cancer Institute

Hope Support and the S1820 Trial

Virginia Sun, PhD, MSN, RN
Professor, Department of Population Sciences and Department of Surgery
City of Hope

Reengaging Veterans Affairs Medical Centers and Bringing NCTN Trials to More Veterans

Stephen D. Bartlett, RPh, MSPH

Assistant Professor
University of Colorado
Anschutz
Rocky Mountain Regional VA Medical Center

Moving SWOG to a More Diverse, Equitable, and Inclusive Future

Patricia Robinson, MD

Professor of Medicine
Loyola University Medical Center

The Hope Foundation for Cancer Research at 30: A Generation of Impact

Jo Horn
President and CEO
The Hope Foundation for Cancer Research

Each presentation will be followed by a brief opportunity for audience members to pose questions to the speaker. Moderator: Charles D. Blanke, MD

Attendees can earn Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits for this event.