

Please also join us for a short film viewing!

A special encore to the Take Action Symposium

Trans Dudes with Lady Cancer

Friday, April 5 | 5:30 – 7:00 pm PT

Beckler / 302 ROOM CHANGE!

5:30 pm	Welcome
5:40-6:15 pm	Film viewing
6:15 pm	Discussion, Q&A with the filmmakers

About the Filmmakers

Yee Won Chong (he/him/his)

As an advocate of transgender justice, Yee Won Chong gave a TEDx talk, “Beyond the Gender Binary”, weaving his personal story about being a transgender immigrant with practical tips on how to be a good ally. Yee Won also provides transgender inclusion training to workplaces and college campuses.

He is the co-filmmaker of “Trans Dudes with Lady Cancer,” a documentary highlighting his personal experience navigating the healthcare system as a transgender person of color. Yee Won and his co-filmmaker, Brooks Nelson, were recently recognized among the 25 Champions of Health Equity.

Brooks Nelson (he/him/his)

Brooks Nelson is an experienced filmmaker and founder of Boxxo Productions. He made “Switch: A Community in Transition”, a documentary that explores the impact of a gender transition not on the individual going through transition but on the surrounding community.